1.0 POLICY:

The Board considers it important that a new member be knowledgeable about governance of District facilities and operations and, insofar as possible, prepared to discuss and cast informed votes on matters before the Board from the time that he/she is sworn into office.

All candidates are welcome to attend public meetings of the Board during the period of their candidacy. All public information about the District is available for review. Additionally, the Board and the superintendent will cooperate impartially with all candidates in providing information about the District.
